Granting the application would result in a severe noise impact. There will be a disaster for wildlife and the conservation area near by. Narrow roads very much limit access for heavy lorries from Fowlmere and Foxton and this restriction will make it very dangerous for children and adults alike (school access and bus stops, shop/pub with parked cars). Also, the character of these tranquil villages will be massively changed by this industrial application.