Sirs,

The moving of Waterbeach station is detrimental to the existing villagers, the idea of moving the station near to a new housing development because people won’t be using their cars is ridiculous, of course they will. The feasibility study also says that the development is below the 5M contour which means building should not be allowed.

Regards Hazel Baldock